THE CITIZEN.

SATURDAY, MARCH 6, 1880.

The Steam Engine.
Some fine machinery, among which was a powerful engine, passed through town the other day for the Tombstone mines, and in a few days the shrill whistle of the locomotive will fall like music upon our expectant ears. If we but pause for a few moments' reflection, we will understand why it is that the imprisoned geni of a little heated water, is the greatest civilizer of the world. On the land it grinds the grain, works the looms of the factory, hoists the ore, carries freight and passengers over mountain tops and across burning, inhospitable deserts. On the sea it holds the prow of the trembling steamer steady against the power of the cyclone and the wave, until the former dies exhausted to a sighing breath, and the latter ceases to rave and sob. Wherever it goes it is the herald of a higher type of civilization.
It does to-day in Arizona the labor of thousand mules and five hundred men.
It makes the labor of a million of men in the United States of more effect than that of two hundred million men. It is the glory of the age, and in its combinations and results proves that its invention nearly a century ago was intended to mark a new epoch in the world, enabling man in his brief three score years and ten to do more labor—really live longer—than did the fossils who vegetated through twenty generations before the flood.

More Jumping Notes.
E. J. Smith, who is just in from Tombstone, informs us there is not much loose lumber lying around the town now, it being all used for fencing lots. Last Sunday it was rumored that the Land Office would not grant a patent to certain lands covered by town lots, and in the evening the jumping process commenced, and was vigorously prosecuted throughout Sunday night. During Monday there was a jull in the real estate matters, but on the nights of the days mentioned unusual activity prevailed. All the vacant lots on Allen and Fremont streets were jumped, in fact the spirit of the acquisition of Territory was so great that the sacred precincts of the graveyard were encroached upon. We are informed that an insurance agent jumped five lots and built cabins upon them. That the number should have been limited to five is the only matter of surprise. Some trouble is anticipated when the former owners make their appearance on the disputed premises.

The New Hotel.
Mention was made a few days ago in the columns of THE CITIZEN of pending negotiations for the erection of a new and commodious hotel in this place. We now state upon good authority that lot 100, being 400 feet square, has been purchased for that purpose, and work upon the building will be commenced within the next ten days. The location is probably one of the best in town, being near the proposed depot of the Southern Pacific railroad. It is the intention of the parties interested, to erect a building at a cost of $50,000. The grounds will be improved, and trees and shrubbery set out. It is intended to expend in the neighborhood of $30,000 in furnishing the house, and beautifying the grounds.

The New Depot.
Work on the depot of the S. P. Railroad will be commenced in a very short time. The graders will camp on the ground this evening and begin work on the arduous well to-morrow, which will be sunk a short distance north of the residence of Joseph Neugass. The dimensions of the freight department will be 35x100 feet. The round house will contain six stalls.
The passenger depot will be 35x35 feet and two stories in height. It is thought the road will be graded to the site of the proposed new building within four days.

Travel to Tombstone.
The stages leaving for Tombstone this morning carried away full loads of passengers. The Philadelphia party went on a special coach by Ohnesorgen & Walker's line. The mines in that district are creating considerable excitement by their richness throughout the mining and speculative circles on the Pacific coast, as well as in New York.

False Rumors.
By grape vine telegraph we learn this morning that the town (?) of Casa Grande, together with the railroad station, had been destroyed by fire.
Upon investigation we found that all of those who have been, during the greater part of their lives, fed upon "flop-doodle" are not dead yet. There may be a conundrum in this.

No Rooms.
At present, owing to the influx of strangers and the rapid increase in our population, there are very few rooms to be found. A large house with well furnished rooms to rent would be a minutiae mint to its owner.

A Bad Place.
We are informed by travelers that a short distance this side of Cienega station, there is a very bad mud hole which should be attended to by those in authority.

Improvements on All Sides.

Either new buildings are being erected or old ones repaired on nearly every street in Tucson. Old ones are being built higher; new floors, doors and windows are being put in; insides are replastered and outside plastered that never have been; sidewalks and streets are undergoing repairs, and Marsh & Driscoll have set an example in front of the Palace Hotel worthy of imitation, as well as nice to look at and solid and clean to stand on. All this work is in harmony with the times, and we believe is justified by the facts. Developments of rich mines are progressing in the mountains all round Tucson. This place is bound to grow steadily and better improvements will be made. The idea that the increased business south, west and north of Tucson will not largely overbalance the partial loss of that to the eastward is not worth entertaining. Mark it down that Tucson will always be the largest and wealthiest town in Arizona. It will keep the lead in public and private schools, in finance, in trade, in manufactures—in short, as the central point to which people and business will come. The great want of the town to-day is a new, airy, well-kept hotel, with large rooms, and situated somewhere east of Stone avenue.
Such an one would not only have abundant patronage now, but for all time, and be a decided attraction for Tucson, which no other institution would equal.

The Rain.
Occupying the position of a conscientious and observant chronicler of passing events, it becomes our imperative duty to inform our numerous readers, that the humidity of the atmosphere became so intense, late yesterday afternoon, that water particles perceptible to the eye, and equally susceptible of demonstrating their power of penetration, descended from a visible vapor which had been suspended in the atmosphere at a low latitude for a number of days; that in consequence, the generally useful, if not indispensable, sprinkling cart, was dispensable with, and that exceedingly comfortable, not to say necessarily economical auxiliary of such a condition of temperature, the umbrella, was brought in prominent, if often ungrace-ful use. We hardly deem it necessary to add—as it possibly may not contribute to the acquisition of knowledge on this subject—that the event referred to in this perfectly lucid article, is of rare occurrence in this locality, at this particular period of the season.

Line Not Down.
Owing to the many inquiries about the line being down the operator deems it proper to publish the following:

TUCSON, March 6.
ED. CITIZEN:—The Star makes the statement in this morning's issue as follows: "A special dispatch to the Star says the lines are all down beyond Yuma, and no news was received yesterday up to 4 o'clock," which means the 5th inst. This is incorrect, as I received press report and list of passengers for your evening issue of the 5th, also received messages from the east at noon via California. The Western Union line was down p. m. of the 4th inst, west of Yuma, but came "O K" at our office hours in the morning at 9 o'clock, consequently was not down as stated. I merely wish to make this correction for the information of the public, who may be misguided, and possibly interfere with important telegraphic correspondence.

Very respectfully, OPERATOR.

Fine Specimens.
Mr. Woffenden, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, showed us some fine specimens to-day from the Mary Lee mine, situated nine miles in a northwesterly direction from town, in the Tucson mountains. This mine is not a new discovery, but has recently been purchased by Messrs. Woffenden, Ross and Lynn, and a new shaft is being sunk on the ledge, which at the present time, has reached a depth of about ten feet. The ledge appears, judging from surface indications, to be some seven feet in width. The ore referred to was taken from the bottom of the shaft, and appears to be unusually rich in silver. It is to be hoped that this, and other mines in the vicinity, may prove all that they promise at present, as their proximity to Tucson would very materially add to our prosperity.

To Move.
We are informed that the office of the Southern Pacific railroad will be moved to-morrow from its present quarters to the house formerly occupied by Joseph Neugass, near the site of the new depot. Parties having business with the agent will bear this in mind.

Bullion.
The Tombstone and Corbin Mill and Mining Co. have shipped lately by Ohnesorgen & Walker's stage line, 57 bars of bullion, valued at $167,730.71.

Sudden Death.
Last Wednesday at about half past six, Charles LaPlante, a waiter, employed in the Palace Hotel, died of congestion of the brain. The deceased was a native of Canada, 27 years of age.

No Doubt.
It has been said that "he who dieth without having begotten a child, or written a book, or built a house, or planted a tree, hath lived in vain." The accomplishment of the first requirement is a mixed problem, which we rather not discuss. Of the second, it is only necessary to state there are no pawbrokers in the Territory, and it is an undeniable fact, demonstrated by the records of over a hundred years, that they are indispensable auxiliaries of literary success. Of the third and fourth the scarcity of lumber and the non-fertility of the soil where trees do not naturally grow, leave a wide margin for those who have "lived in vain," but if we may be permitted to add a fifth to the list, and place thereon the discovery of a mine, we feel assured the industrious and persevering miners of Arizona have not as a body lived in vain.

Sabbath Bells.
To-morrow (Sunday) there will be religious services held, as usual, in the new church, Rev. Mr. Mills, the pastor, officiating. Services will begin at 11 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m., as nearly as possible the Post Office time. The sermon on a spiritual topic will be delivered in the morning by the pastor in his usual manner; and in the evening he will endeavor to answer philosophically and rationally the question, "How do we know that man has a soul?" Sunday school at 3 p. m.
Scots free, and all cordially welcome.

The Word "Sodomit."
Which has already become a household word, is derived from the Greek, and composed of two words, Sozo and Omotos. "Sozo" translated means to preserve, and "Omotos" the teeth—"SOZODONT," a preserver of the teeth. And it is true to its name. It beautifies and preserves the teeth, hardens and invigorates the gums, and corrects all impurities of the breath. The odor of this pure preparation is so delightful that it is a luxury to apply it.
It is harmless as water. Sold by all druggists and perfumers.

DEPARTURES.
Chas. West, W. Archer, M. Simas,
Mr. Cundy.

Setting Out Trees.
The Mayor and a number of assistants were busily engaged yesterday in setting out young pepperwood trees inside the fence surrounding the Court House Square. If he who makes a blaze of grass grow where none grew before confers a blessing on mankind, the man who does the same regarding trees must be proportionately sanctified.

Still Nearer.
Seven cars of rails came down on the last train as far as Los Angeles, but as the train was behind time they were left over. It is to be hoped there will be no more delay than possible in forwarding the necessary rails.

Theatrical.
We understand that Roraback, tenor in the Pinafore troupe which performed here last fall, has telegraphed to Levin to secure his hall, contemplating bringing a troupe here.

Attention.

liable houses in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Wanted.

L. Williams to leave her trunk which

The First Tent.

graders between this place and Tombstone has been pitched on the racetrack and the work of grading will be rapidly pushed ahead.

Commuted.
Sheriff Shihell has received an official order from Gov. Fremont commuting the sentence of Oliver Boyer from hanging to imprisonment for life.

Messages.
There were received at the Military Telegraph office at this place during the month of February, 1794 messages, for which $1522.28 was received.

Hon. E. Ochoa has just returned from

The Business Boom

Noticeable among the many improvements now being made in this city is that in the wholesale and retail establishment of Pierce & Wood.
Commencing business in such cramped quarters as could be secured, in order to meet the increased demand made upon them by their extensive trade they have been forced to convert their store into one large sales-room, removing their warehouse to more commodious quarters. Established only nine months in Tucson, the energy and fair dealing of this firm has not alone made their name a household word, but has laid a firm basis among the merchants of the mining camps of Pima County for extensive operations. As an insight to these extensive dealings it may not be amiss to state that since last June they have handled upwards of 300 tons of fresh fruits, family and camp supplies.
They receive goods from first hands and ship by the carload. Buying for cash in the California markets, through experienced purchasers, they are enabled to place their goods on the market at a small margin. To-day they are unloading 4,000 pounds, and have 12,000 more en route. The enterprise of such houses as this is fast increasing the importance of this commercial center.

The Game of Flip Is now played to some extent in this city. The character of the game is not like any other that we know of.
We cannot describe it exactly, having seen it but once. It is played by two only and it serves to develop the muscle of the leg. We should think it a healthy exercise, except to the one "flipped," who stands a good chance of having his neck broken, if the opponent is an active and muscular person. It is an exceedingly amusing recreation to the lookers on. It is our intention to describe it dithartically after we have further investigated the ins and outs of the game. A party of strangers were permitted last evening to view how it was done by an expert, and they enjoyed it very much. The amount of agility displayed was wonderful. It may when known become as popular with the masses as polo or base ball.

We have found another pay-streak, and after surveying it have concluded to tell everybody and divide. We cannot commend it to the soberest and shrewdest as a mine well worth working. We are in receipt of the new 48 page price-list of the Red House Trade Union, of Sacramento, California, and which we could put it into the hands of every man and woman in Arizona.
Buying goods through orders to this great house is now a leading feature of California and Nevada trade, and we cannot see why Arizona should not find it equally advantageous. Every one should send for their price-list which is mailed free.

Thought it Was Copper.

When the Contention mine was first discovered some seven years ago by T.
J. Dillon he paid but little attention to it, believing at the time it was a copper mine. That which he mistook could not be fooled now.
